

ASIAN STUDIES–CHINESE CONCENTRATION, A.A.-B.A.

This is a suggested course plan. It is highly recommended that you meet regularly with your academic advisor to determine your course selection and progress toward graduation.

Students who transfer to UNC under the Comprehensive Articulation Agreement (CAA) have all lower-level General Education requirements completed, but must complete these requirements through transfer or UNC coursework: Global Language, Research and Discovery, Lifetime Fitness, Communication Beyond Carolina, Campus Life Experience, and, where applicable, Supplemental General Education. Students who do not transfer in under the CAA should work closely with their advisor to determine which requirements apply to them for the IDEAs in Action General Education curriculum (<http://catalog.unc.edu/undergraduate/ideas-in-action/>).

This catalog also includes a complete list of requirements for the Asian Studies major, B.A.–Chinese Concentration degree. (<http://catalog.unc.edu/undergraduate/programs-study/asian-studies-major-ba-chinese-concentration/#requirementstext>)

² Prerequisite for major courses. The first three levels of Chinese (CHIN) can count toward the General Education Global Language requirement and have not been included as additional hours for the major. Transfer credit for CHIN 203 fulfills the IDEAs in Action GLOBE-LANG requirement.

³ The Department of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies requires that all students with prior knowledge of Chinese take a placement test. The beginning language course at UNC is decided by the placement (not by test credit or transfer credit). The Chinese language program has two tracks, A (regular) and B (heritage), and a student's initial placement also determines which track they will be on. Students are encouraged to take all four levels of the language at the NCCC if they are able.

² This sample plan assumes placement into CHIN 305. However, a transfer student's initial placement could be lower (even if they completed four semesters in community college), higher, or on the other track entirely, and their path through the major would change accordingly. Please refer to the major sample plans (<http://catalog.unc.edu/undergraduate/programs-study/asian-studies-major-ba-chinese-concentration/#sampleplantext>) for a broader idea of the options. Incoming transfer students are also strongly advised to consult the department about their initial course selections; departmental advising is subsequently required every fall semester.

³ See major requirements in this Catalog (<http://catalog.unc.edu/undergraduate/programs-study/asian-studies-major-ba-chinese-concentration/#requirementstext>) for a list of culture courses.
