

GERMANIC AND SLAVIC LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES—SLAVIC AND EAST EUROPEAN LANGUAGES AND CULTURES CONCENTRATION, A.A. TO B.A.

This is a suggested course plan. It is highly recommended that you meet regularly with your academic advisor to determine your course selection and progress toward graduation.

Students who transfer to UNC under the Comprehensive Articulation Agreement (CAA) have all lower-level General Education requirements completed, but must complete these requirements through transfer or UNC coursework: Global Language, Research and Discovery, Lifetime Fitness, Communication Beyond Carolina, Campus Life Experience, and, where applicable, Supplemental General Education. Students who do not transfer in under the CAA should work closely with their advisor to determine which requirements apply to them for the IDEAs in Action General Education curriculum (<http://catalog.unc.edu/undergraduate/ideas-in-action/>).

This Catalog also includes a complete list of requirements for the Germanic and Slavic Languages and Literatures—Slavic and East European Languages and Cultures Concentration B.A. (<http://catalog.unc.edu/undergraduate/programs-study/germanic-slavic-languages-literatures-major-slavic-east-european-languages-cultures-concentration/>) degree.

² Counts in the major.

³ All NC Community College Language courses numbered 211 are approved to transfer to UNC-Chapel Hill as a course that completes the GLBL-LANG IDEAs in Action requirement.

Russian is the only option available at the NC Community Colleges, so is shown as the first language (to be taken through level 5) on this Pathway. Students have the option to pursue a different level 5 language once they arrive at UNC by making use of elective hours and summer school (if available) or an additional semester to complete the required 5 levels.

The Russian program at UNC-CH requires that all students with prior knowledge of Russian take a placement test; the beginning language course at UNC is decided by the placement.
