The M.P.A. program is designed for working professionals and others who aspire to become public service leaders but require the flexibility of an online format.

The M.P.A. program is offered in two formats, on campus and online. The online format is designed for working professionals and others who have undergraduate majors in architecture, business administration, engineering, English, history, industrial relations, and many other fields.

Admission Requirements

The M.P.A. program welcomes applicants from diverse backgrounds. While many applicants are from the social sciences, other applicants have undergraduate majors in architecture, business administration, engineering, English, history, industrial relations, and many other fields.

The requirements for admission are:

- A bachelor’s degree
- A recommended grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 or higher
- A minimum of three semester hours of credit in American government and politics (This is not a requirement to apply for admission but would need to be completed prior to the first day of fall classes if offered admission.)
- A recommended score that is at or greater than the 50th percentile for both the verbal and quantitative sections of the Graduate Record Examination (GRE)
- A purpose statement
- Three letters of recommendation
- An oral interview with the M.P.A. admissions committee

All admissions decisions are made during the spring for fall semester matriculation into the on-campus format. Applications must meet the deadlines of The Graduate School. Admissions decisions for MPA@UNC are made during three terms. Fall matriculation decisions are made in the summer, spring matriculation decisions are made in the fall, and summer matriculation decisions are made in the spring.

Financial Aid

The M.P.A. program provides financial assistance to many of its students. Research assistantships and scholarships are available to top on campus format candidates. Students also become involved in School of Government projects or work in governmental or nonprofit organizations as graduate assistants. The online format of the M.P.A. program also provides scholarships to top candidates.

Coursework and requirements for the M.P.A. degree include a minimum of 45 semester hours of credit, a practicum, an applied research problem, and a final oral examination. These requirements are designed to ensure that each graduate possesses the core set of competencies that supports the M.P.A. program’s mission of preparing public service leaders.

Core course requirements are as follows:

- PUBA 709 - Public Administration Institutions and Values (3)
- PUBA 710 - Organization Theory (3)
- PUBA 711 - Public Service Leadership (3)
- PUBA 719 - Public Administration Evaluation and Analysis I (3)
- PUBA 720 - Public Administration Evaluation and Analysis II (3)
In addition to the core course requirements, each student completes 15 semester hours of elective courses.
