

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The University provides a list of campuswide official policies (<http://policies.unc.edu>). The policies and procedures in this section of the catalog include information about course credit; registration and enrollment; attendance, grading, and examination; academic standing, transcripts; and other important information.

Regulations and Requirements for Undergraduate Students

Students are responsible for observing the procedures, regulations, and requirements of the University as they are set forth here and in other official University publications. This section describes many of the requirements and regulations that apply to undergraduates, but it is not a complete list of all such regulations and requirements. Unless otherwise stated, the regulations described in this section will govern the academic progress of students from their first year in the General College through their final semester in the College of Arts and Sciences or one of the undergraduate professional schools. The staff of the University will gladly provide students with detailed information concerning their academic program or academic problems, but this does not relieve any student of individual responsibility for meeting the University's requirements and observing University regulations.

Regulations and Requirements for Graduate Students

The Graduate School Handbook contains most of the policies and procedures of The Graduate School at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Students should become familiar with the material pertaining to their degree programs, and, together with their faculty advisors, make certain that the chosen program of study complies with all policies.

Policy Changes

The following policies were changed since the publication date of this catalog:

Distance-Learning Courses

- Any Spring 2020 classes that were converted to remote instruction will not contribute to the limit of distance learning courses that a student can apply towards a degree in the College of Arts and Sciences.
- All Summer 2020 classes will not contribute to the limit of distance learning courses that a student can apply towards a degree in the College of Arts and Sciences.
- Any Fall 2020 classes offered using the remote or HyFlex instruction mode will not contribute to the limit of distance learning courses that a student can apply towards a degree in the College of Arts and Sciences.
