

NORTH CAROLINA FELLOWS PROGRAM

The North Carolina Fellows Program is a three-year cohort-based leadership program housed in the Office of Student Life & Leadership, and has been present on the UNC–Chapel Hill campus since 1968. The mission of the North Carolina Fellows Program is to reimagine traditional understandings of leadership by engaging in meaningful dialogue, creating a supportive community, increasing self-awareness amongst its members, and encouraging positive change.

Program components include retreats, a three-credit-hour course for sophomore students, a junior seminar, a one-credit capstone course for senior students, and monthly seminars where all three cohorts come together to discuss a variety of topics. Interested students can apply during the spring semester of their first year.
