Introduction
The School of Education is committed to the preparation of candidates who can assume leadership roles in the field of education. Such preparation is accomplished through the coherent integration of the abilities and predispositions of candidates, the knowledge and abilities of faculty members, and the contextual elements of academic and field settings. The growth and development of candidates is promoted through curriculum, instruction, research, field experiences, clinical practice, assessments, evaluations, and interactions with faculty members and peers. All of these elements work together to build a solid foundation for exemplary practices in education.

Programs of Study
Students are subject to the requirements in place when they are admitted to the School of Education; consequently, the requirements for approved programs described in this catalog particularly apply to students admitted to the school during the 2021–2022 academic year.

Advising
To best facilitate completion of all degree requirements students are strongly encouraged to meet with an academic advisor every semester.

The School of Education’s director of advising, Audrey Fulton, meets with students who are interested in or admitted to any of the SOE’s undergraduate programs. Students interested in making an advising appointment can contact Ms. Fulton (abfulton@email.unc.edu). Based on a student’s academic program, he or she may also need to continue to meet with an advisor in the College of Arts and Sciences.

Admission to the School of Education
Human Development and Family Studies
Admission to the human development and family studies major (http://catalog.unc.edu/undergraduate/programs-study/human-development-family-studies-baed/) is offered every semester. Admission is based on, but not limited to, a 2.5 grade point average, good academic standing, expressed interest in the helping professions, and space available. For more information, please visit the School of Education website (http://soe.unc.edu/hdfs/).

Human and Organizational Leadership and Development
Admission to the human and organizational leadership and development major (https://catalog.unc.edu/undergraduate/programs-study/human-org-leadership-ba/) is required and offered every semester. Admission is based on, but not limited to, a 2.5 grade point average, good academic standing, expressed interest in the field, and space available. For more information, please visit the School of Education website (https://ed.unc.edu/academics/programs/human-organizational-leadership-and-development/)

Education Minor
The undergraduate minor in education is appropriate for undergraduate students interested in furthering their knowledge of education as a means of career development or to enhance their understanding of current schooling, community, and policy directions.

To declare a minor in education, you must see an advisor by appointment. During the declaration appointment, your advisor will review with you the requirements for the minor. If it is feasible for you to complete the minor within the eight-semester limit, you and your advisor will complete a declaration form to get you declared.

For more information, please visit the School of Education website (http://soe.unc.edu/academics/education-minor/).

UNC Baccalaureate Education in Science and Teaching (UNC–BEST)

UNC–BEST is a collaboration between the School of Education and the College of Arts and Sciences (http://college.unc.edu/). This innovative program offers undergraduate science and mathematics majors the opportunity to complete requirements for a bachelor of arts or bachelor of science and obtain licensure as a secondary science or mathematics teacher in North Carolina in four years. Students will be prepared for N.C. licensure in either mathematics (9–12) or comprehensive science (9–12).

UNC–BEST Admissions Requirements
- Math or science (biology, chemistry, geological sciences, environmental studies/science and physics) major
- Minimum 2.7 GPA
- SAT or ACT score requirements*
  - SAT: Math–550, Reading–550, 1100 Combined
  - ACT: Math 24, English–24, 24 Composite
- Completion of online application

*Applicants who do not meet the minimum SAT and ACT score requirements can take the Praxis Core Academic Skills for Educators: Score–468 Composite; Reading–156/Writing–162; Math–150

K-12 Music Education

K-12 Music Education is a collaboration between the School of Education and the Department of Music. This program offers undergraduate bachelor of music (B.M.) students the opportunity to complete requirements for a bachelor of music and obtain licensure as a K–12 music teacher in North Carolina in four years. Students will be prepared for N.C. licensure in teaching music at the K–12 grade level.
Music Education Admissions Requirements

- Music major
- Minimum 3.0 GPA
- SAT or ACT score requirements*
  SAT: Math–550, Reading–550, 1100 Combined
  ACT: Math–24, English–24, 24 Composite
- Online application which includes:
  - Personal statement (500–750 words describing your interest in teaching, pertinent background experiences, and relevant aspirations)
  - 2 letters of recommendation (one letter must be from a UNC instructor)
  - Resume

*Applicants who do not meet the minimum SAT and ACT score requirements can take the Praxis Core Academic Skills for Educators: Score–468 Composite; Reading–156/Writing–162; Math–150

Pre-M.A.T. (Early Affiliation to the Master of Arts in Teaching)

The Pre-M.A.T. is an opportunity for UNC–Chapel Hill undergraduates to engage with select M.A.T. coursework, which may reduce M.A.T. tuition costs, if the student is admitted. While joining the Pre-M.A.T. is not a requirement to be considered for admission to the M.A.T., there are many benefits of joining, which include:

- M.A.T. prerequisite advising/course planning with a School of Education advisor
- Access to select M.A.T. courses as an undergraduate, which may reduce M.A.T. tuition costs, if the student is admitted
- Opportunity to get to know M.A.T. faculty and current students
- Undergraduate student engagement opportunities related to teaching and learning

Students interested in more information or applying to become a Pre-M.A.T. “early affiliate” can email the School of Education’s director of advising and undergraduate student engagement, Audrey Fulton (abfulton@email.unc.edu).

Establishing Licensure

At UNC, two undergraduate pathways for coursework prepare students for N.C. teacher licensure: UNC–BEST and K–12 Music Education. While the School of Education does not offer an undergraduate major that leads to N.C. teacher licensure, UNC students have the opportunity to engage with select master of arts in teaching (M.A.T.) coursework, faculty and staff in order to pre-plan their intended entry into the M.A.T. upon graduation. Information on the Pre-M.A.T. can be found here (http://catalog.unc.edu/undergraduate/schools-college/education/#admissiontext) or by contacting the School of Education’s director of advising and undergraduate student engagement, Audrey Fulton (abfulton@email.unc.edu).

North Carolina licensure requirements are distinct from the School of Education’s degree requirements. Applications for North Carolina licensure must be submitted through the N.C. Department of Public Instruction’s online licensure system by the graduate seeking licensure. Forms are no longer submitted by the UNC School of Education licensure officer. The UNC School of Education licensure reviews and either approves or denies all licensure applications routed to UNC through the N.C. Department of Public Instruction online licensure system. More information about applying for N.C. licensure is available on the School of Education website (http://soe.unc.edu/services/student_affairs/licensure/).

The programs described in this catalog are approved by the N.C. Department of Public Instruction, the State Board of Education, and the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (now the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation).

UNC Baccalaureate Education in Science and Teaching (UNC–BEST)

UNC–BEST is a collaboration between the School of Education and the College of Arts and Sciences (http://college.unc.edu/). This innovative program offers undergraduate science and mathematics majors the opportunity to complete requirements for a bachelor of arts or bachelor of science and obtain licensure as a secondary science or mathematics teacher in North Carolina. Students will be prepared for N.C. licensure in either mathematics (9–12) or comprehensive science (9–12).

UNC–BEST students are enrolled in their respective major in the College of Arts and Sciences and, once accepted into the UNC–BEST program, complete the requirements to earn North Carolina teaching licensure.

To be recommended for N.C. licensure, UNC–BEST students must complete Praxis testing appropriate to their content area. More information about the testing requirements is available on the School of Education testing website (http://soe.unc.edu/services/student_affairs/testing.php).
